Jerry Newman, 84 2-27-87

PATERSON — Jerry Newman, 84, died Thursday in Barnert Memorial Hospital Center.

Born in New York City, he moved to Paterson in 1941.

Mr. Newman retired as a clothing salesman for Konner's Department Store, Paterson, where he had worked since the 1930s.

He was a member of the Community Synagogue of Paterson and B'nai B'rith Lodge 143 of Paterson and served on the Mayor's Commission for senior citizens' causes in Paterson. He was an active member of several senior citizen groups.

Survivors include his wife, the former Mollie Dressler; two sons, Robert Newman of Upper Nyack, N.Y., and Edward Newman of Elkins Park, Pa.; a brother, William Newman of Riverdale, N.Y.; and five grandchildren.

Services are 10 a.m. Sunday from the Louis Suburban Chapel, 13-01 Broadway, Fair Lawn.
