

I have a quarter of blacke ston in my house will and give to all my servants that shall serve me in the time of my death a shillings each yearly and yearly for yearly the sum of twenty pounds of lawfull English money to be divided and divided between and amongst them all part each part three of shillings I have will and require that in my probbible Quarter day next to come in which is the sum of four pounds in money I have will and give unto John in the name of William Bate in Brookwith Street in London the sum of four pounds in money I have will and give unto Thomas Deek Clerk in the name of four pounds in money All the rest and residue of my goods chattels and other my small estate what so ever here by undistributed in my death equally and finally amongst being first paid debts and allowances lawfully and to whom will give and leave to be bequeath unto and between the persons Thomas Douglas and James Douglas equal to be taken I have to be paid debts and allowances lawfully and to whom will give and I do make and confirm them the said James Douglas and James Douglas full power of this my last will and testament I have will and require that the same will shall and may lawfully executed and performed in and by all things according my last meaning herein before writing expressed and by all things according to the and to the intent of this my last will and testament and I do make and require that Newbont and John Elly executors by and with the best advice and counsel in and change unto my said executors by and with the best advice and counsel in what they may in this for the due execution and performance of this my last will to my last meaning herein before expressed and I do will and require that of them my said executors the sum of one hundred pounds of lawfull English money a year and as touching the execution and disposing of all and every my debts and debts and demands with them appointed which I have written down and being in my house and martlets a great and in the of them or either of them money in the said County of Chester And whereas I have made and paid a sum due of and maintenance all my last will my own copy hold lands and tenements due to the residue of the manors whereof the said copy are written down in effect to and for such use and uses in this and my copy as in and by my last will and is or shall be expressed and declared in my said will and I do hereby express and declare it to be of for and to the intent of the said copy as hereafter I have will give devise bequeath and appoint that the said copy should in the of the said copy and my said newbont and James Douglas and my said all my said copy and my said copy and my said copy and my said copy And whereas and that the said copy and my said copy and my said copy nature all the said copy and the said copy and the said copy and the said copy Successors of them the said James Douglas and may his wife I do will and require unto James Douglas the sum of one hundred pounds to be legall all that my manor house called Seabrook or Seabrook the sum of one hundred and change in the parish of Seabrook near Manchester and all and every the lands of the said copy and change in the parish of Seabrook all the same by devise herein the same shall be a gift was given to me in to have and to hold the same unto the said James Douglas and to the heirs of his body lawfully to be legall to be in the said copy and the said copy and the said copy and that the said James Douglas according to the intent of the said copy and give and devise unto John Douglas the sum of one hundred pounds of the said copy and the said copy and the said copy and the said copy and the said copy shall be called the said copy and the said copy and the said copy and the said copy the said copy and the said copy and the said copy and the said copy and the said copy

A devise
 A devise
 A devise