Youth dies in shooting

A 16-year-old Mesquite boy died of what has been termed an accidental shooting at his home Thursday night.

Michael Scully, of 5100 S. Belt Line, was shot around 11:30 p.m. in the neck as he was ejecting shells from a .303 rifle belonging to a 14-year-old friend, said Justine Tucker of the Dallas Sheriff's Department.

Scully was pronounced dead at the scene at 12:30 a.m. by the Dallas County Medical Examiner's office.

Tucker said she did not know whether the case would be referred to the Grand Jury, adding it would be up to the district attorney to decide.
