

Lancaster daily intelligencer. (Lancaster, Pa.) 1864-1928, January 21, 1882, Image 2

Image provided by Penn State University Libraries; University Park, PA

Persistent link: <http://chroniclingamerica.loc.gov/lccn/sn83032300/1882-01-21/ed-1/seq-2/>

Print this image | Download this image

the stealings cut off.

Killed by Trichinae.

Who ate at a German wedding about a pound of raw ham was one of the delirious and was partaken of by several guests, who have shown evidence of the trichinae. Most of them were relieved of the parasite, but one, Straes, 32 years old, became delirious after the treatment resorted to, and died in a great agony. Examination of his stomach led to the discovery of 40,000 trichinae in one square inch.

Valuable Horse Dead.

John Harold, a brother of Lorilenois, owned by Mr. Walden, of Frederick, Maryland, died last Saturday. Walden refused $15,000 for the horse last summer.

Tuesday Evening's Lecture.

When a gentleman of ex-Senator Wallace's eminence and ability comes without any remuneration to our city to deliver an address our citizens should honor themselves, and him alike, with a large audience. He speaks in the court house on next Tuesday evening, and his theme is one of popular interest. The entire proceeds of the occasion will go into the fund for feeding the city poor.

Another Applicant for Divorce.

Mrs. Riley C. Waidley, by her next friend James F. Gregg, has applied for a divorce from her husband, Walter Waidley, on the ground of desertion. Lancaster will soon rival Chicago in the calls made upon courts to untie the knot that binds two unwilling hearts.

We visited the hospital and found 108 boys and 26 girls, of which 72 girls. We found the hospital entirely well conducted and the condition and the food for We recommend that unexpended balance hands be appropriated for much of the bond of the institution.

We also visited the hospital. In the almshouse, 143 men, 54 women and children. They all appear for, the building is neat and clean, and the food good. In the hospital we found 74 inmates, 41 men and one girl. In the institution we found 61 men, 58 women